

PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy governs your use of the software application DotIPA (“Application”) for desktop devices that was created by Kenneth Schlagel and ndukt limited.

What information does the Application obtain and how is it used?

User Provided Information

The Application does not collect or retain any user information whatsoever except. No build data is sent over the network or stored outside of the user’s machine.

Processed Information via App Functionality

Data that is processed by the Application is stored in a local database on the user’s machine and is never sent or retained anywhere else. The Application then references this locally stored data when displaying the graphical user interface. Users are free to delete an app, a build, or the entire database itself to delete this information.

Do third parties see and/or have access to information obtained by the Application?

No. All 3rd party libraries not provided by Apple have been inspected to confirm they run only locally on the Application, and that they do not capture or send user data at any time.

What are my opt-out rights?

Delete the Application easily by uninstalling the Application. You are free to use the standard uninstall processes that may be available on your device to uninstall and delete the Application.

Data Retention Policy, Managing Your Information

We do not collect any of your personal information inside of the Application, and thus cannot retain your personal information.

Children

We do not use the Application to knowingly solicit data from or market to children under the age of 13.

Security

We distribute the Application directly through the Apple App store so that it can not be tampered with after it is published by us. All policies above are disclosed under the assumption that the Application is never altered, modified, or tampered with once we submit it to the App Store. The site which hosts this privacy policy is served securely over an https connection.

Changes

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. You are advised to consult this Privacy Policy regularly for any changes.

Your Consent

By using the Application, you consent to our privacy policy.
